MOSAIC WORKSHOPS

Cheryl Hann-Woodlock has many years experience in the art of Mosaic, working with a variety of mediums to create unique artworks.

She has created sculptures, huge wall installations, commissions and is employed as artist in residence. She enjoys the challenge of design, using colour, texture, a variety of mediums and her own hand made tiles, to create original works of art. Students will develop technical skill and artistic confidence under Cheryl's guidance, whilst receiving encouragement in all aspects of their individual projects.

Beginners Workshops

These workshops are ideal for beginners who have very little experience in the art of mosaic.

Students will learn about design, and which tools to use for which project.

Projects are kept simple to ensure students achieve and finish their works in a reasonable time frame.

It is also a great class for those wishing to individualise their artwork.

Bookings availability is limited due to class sizes.

Contact Cheryl for dates to commence.
